

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE FOR PARTICIPANTS OF THE CONFERENCE:

“People with Disabilities in Sport: Theory and Practice”

To fulfill the obligation under Article 13 (1) and (2) of the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter referred to as "GDPR"), we inform you that:

1. The Controller of your personal data is the Jerzy Kukuczka Academy of Physical Education in Katowice [ul. Mikołowska 72a, 40 – 065 Katowice].
2. The Jerzy Kukuczka Academy of Physical Education in Katowice appointed a Data Protection Officer, who can be contacted via e-mail: iod@awf.katowice.pl
3. The Controller collects and processes your personal data:
 - a) to conclude and implement the provisions of the agreement. The legal basis for processing personal data in this regard is Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR.
 - b) to fulfill the Controller's legal obligations under generally applicable law, in particular tax law. The basis for processing personal data in this regard is Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR in conjunction with the relevant provisions of generally applicable law, in particular tax law;
 - c) to establish, assert, or defend claims that the Controller may raise or that may be raised against the Controller. The above purpose constitutes a legitimate interest pursued by the Controller. The legal basis for processing personal data in this regard is Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR.
 - d) for other purposes where you have freely given your informed written consent. The legal basis for processing your personal data in this regard is Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR.
4. The provision of your personal data is a precondition for the conclusion of the agreement. If you do not provide the required personal data, it will not be possible to conclude the agreement. This does not apply to personal data processed based on the consent. The provision of such data is voluntary, and if it is not provided, it will not be used for the purposes indicated in the consent clause.
5. In connection with the concluded agreement, your personal data may be transferred to the competent authorities of the state administration, banks (only for the purpose of payment of remuneration), or law firm, in case of the need to establish, assert or defend claims that the Controller may raise or that may be raised against the Controller in connection with the concluded agreement.
6. Your personal data will be processed for the period necessary for the execution, termination, or expiration of the concluded agreement, and thereafter for the period required by law, in particular tax law, or until claims are barred by the statute of limitations. This does not apply to personal data processed based on the consent. In this case, your personal data will be processed until it is withdrawn or until the purpose for which the data was or will be collected becomes outdated.
7. The Controller informs you that you have the right:
 - a) to request access to your personal data from the Controller;
 - b) in case the personal data processed by the Controller is inaccurate, you have the right to rectify it, i.e. to request amendment or completion;
 - c) if your personal data is not needed by the Controller for the purposes for which it was collected; if an objection has been lodged under the conditions described below; if the data should be deleted in order to comply with an obligation under the law, you have the right to demand that the Controller delete this personal data;
 - d) in case you question the accuracy of your personal data, you may request the restriction of its processing for a period that allows the Controller to verify the accuracy of the data;
 - e) in addition to the case indicated in point d), you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data if your personal data is unlawfully processed by the Controller, but you do not want the Controller to delete it; if your data is not needed by the Controller, but may be needed to defend or assert your claims; or if you object to the processing of your data on the grounds described below until it is determined whether the legitimate grounds on the part of the Controller override the grounds for the objection;

f) to request the transfer of your designated personal data.

In order to exercise the above-mentioned rights, please contact the Data Protection Officer directly (contact information as above).

8. If your personal data are processed based on your consent (Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR), you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time, but this does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before the withdrawal of this consent. The statement of withdrawal of consent can be addressed to the Data Protection Officer (contact details are indicated above).
9. If in your opinion, the Controller has violated data protection regulations, you have the right to lodge a complaint to the competent supervisory authority, i.e. the President of the Personal Data Protection Office.
10. You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data if the processing of your personal data is based on a legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR). In such a case, the Controller will no longer be allowed to process your data unless they have a valid legitimate legal basis for doing so, overriding your rights and freedoms or the basis for establishing, pursuing, or defending claims. You may submit this objection directly to the Data Protection Officer (contact details as indicated above).
11. Your personal data provided will not be transferred to third countries.
12. The personal data you provide will not be processed in an automated manner (i.e. without human intervention), in particular, will not be subject to profiling.
